FR DAVID WRITES:

This week we have the school half-term holidays. Please note that the Parish Office will be closed on Tuesday and Friday in addition to Wednesday this week. I will be away for some days off this coming week and the following week, but here at the weekends. I wish everyone well for your half-term activities or holidays.

Next Sunday we will celebrate the solemnity of All Saints. In these dark autumnal days this bright festival raises our hearts to the glittering array of saints in heaven. It is a glimpse and a foretaste of the Heavenly Jerusalem, the resplendent homeland towards which we are all headed. I hope that you will all celebrate this feast in your homes.

Monday 2 November is the commemoration of All Souls. On that day, we will celebrate a Requiem Mass for all the faithful departed at 9.00am in church. Please make a special effort to come along. In November, we traditionally pray for the Holy Souls and all of our loved ones who have died, that the Lord in his mercy may bring them to the splendour of heaven. It is a good and holy thing to have Mass said for your departed ones at this time. Masses can be booked with Lucy or Jo in the office.

God bless you during the coming week. Fr David.

The Faithful Departed – Next weekend at the back of church, you will find sheets and envelopes for November. You are invited to write the names of deceased relatives and friends who you will be praying for in the month of the Holy Souls. Fold the sheet, and place it in the brown envelope. It is customary to give an offering for the prayers and Masses during November for the Holy Souls. You can leave your offering in the envelope too. These names and sheets will be placed on the altar at Mass each day in November. Please either drop the envelope in the offertory bag at Mass, or give it to Fr David.

Rosary - October is the month of the Rosary. There will be an opportunity to say the rosary in the sacristy at 7pm every Thursday during October.

Mass Count – Each Sunday in October we are required to take the annual Mass count, in order to submit the pastoral statistics to the diocese.

Laudate Si': Care for our Common Home: The key concerns of our local community in the light of Catholic Social Teaching will continue in the autumn with a focus on Pope Francis' Encyclical Letter on human ecology. Monday 26 October, introductory with Fr Damian Howard SJ Monday 16 November, on ecological concerns with Henry Longbottom SJ, Monday 7 December, on our Christian life with Fr. Michael Kirwan SJ. Come at 6.00pm for food to start at 6.30pm. The evening will close by 9.00pm. Suggested donation for the three evenings £15, copies of the book included.

Parish Office – Please note that the Parish Office is closed on Wednesdays. It is generally open from 10am-3pm on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. *In addition this week the Parish Office will also be closed on Tuesday and Friday.

Carmelite Prayer Group - Next session Monday 9 November
